PHILLIP RAPOZA
CHIEF JUSTICE

October 25, 2011

Honorable Robert J. Cordy
Chair,
SJC Rules Committee
Supreme Judicial Court
John Adams Courthouse

Re: Adoption of Pilot Program Requiring Appellants to File Docketing Statements in Criminal Appeals.

Dear Justice Cordy:

The Justices of the Appeals Court have proposed a pilot program requiring appellants to file docketing statements in all criminal appeals.

The docketing statement will provide the court with important background information that will be useful not only when the case is entered and screened, but also while it is under consideration. The pilot program, in turn, will help us to refine the format of the form and to determine if any adjustments are required. During the course of the pilot, the docketing statement will be posted on the Appeals Court website as a PDF form that will have drop-down menus, calendars, and text that will automatically fill in certain information. Attorneys and litigants will be able to complete and save the form and then file it by e-mail. Incarcerated self-represented appellants would not be required to participate. A copy of the docketing statement is attached for your review. I will also forward to you an electronic PDF copy to provide you the opportunity to review its various features.

The Appeals Court solicited public comment on the proposed pilot program and several comments were received. After reviewing those comments, we removed the requirement of a statement of anticipated issues.

I respectfully request that the Supreme Judicial Court approve the adoption of this pilot program, to begin on December 1, 2011, and continue through December 31, 2012.

Yours sincerely,

PILOT PROGRAM CRIMINAL DOCKETING STATEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. Counsel representing an appellant shall file a docketing statement for every case appealed or cross-appealed to the Massachusetts Appeals Court. The docketing statement is available on the Appeals Court's website. It must be received by the Appeals Court's Clerk's Office within fourteen days after the Appeals Court issues the "Notice of Entry" of the appeal. The docketing statement shall be filed by e-mailing the completed form to: emotions@appct.state.ma.us. The subject line of the e-mail and docketing statement's file name shall consist of (a) an abbreviated docket number, e.g., 11P0023 (i.e., a two digit year followed, without a space, by a "P" followed, again without a space, by the last four digits of the docket number); (b) followed by a hyphen; (c) followed by a description of the filing containing no more than 56 characters, indicating what it is and who filed it, for example, "11P0023-Docketing Statement Jason Jones.pdf". Upon motion and a showing of good cause, the court can allow a paper copy to be filed by first-class mail or hand delivery.
2. In the case of multiple appellants represented by separate counsel, each counsel for an appellant shall file a separate docketing statement. Counsel representing multiple appellants shall file one docketing statement on behalf of all appellants represented by that counsel.
3. Incarcerated self-represented appellants are not required to file a docketing statement at this time.
4. All fields and the certificate of service must be completed. If inadequate space has been provided for the information requested, please provide the additional information in an attachment.
5. The docketing statement and certificate of service may be signed electronically by the person filing the docketing statement. The proper format for an electronic signature is "/s/" followed by the name of the filer, e.g., "/s/ Jason Jones". Upon agreement between the parties, service of this docketing statement by electronic mail will be deemed in compliance with Mass.R.A.P. 13(c).
6. If the appellant fails to file the docketing statement, the court can decline to act on any motion to enlarge time to file a brief or a motion to stay appellate proceedings, until the appellant has filed the docketing statement.
7. For the purposes of this form, the term "impounded" includes any portion of the record that is impounded, sealed, or deemed confidential or excluded from public access by statute, court order, rule, or standing order.

Important Requirements for the Filing of the Brief and Record Appendix

8. Parties filing a brief or record appendix that contains impounded material must comply with M.R.A.P. 16(d), 16(m), and 18(g). If a brief or record appendix includes any items listed as "personal identifying data" in the S.J.C.'s Interim Guidelines on Personal Identifying Data, the parties shall comply with the guidelines in all filings with the Appeals Court.
